ANNOUNCEMENTS.
We are authorized to announce F. A. Kelly as a candidate for reelection to the office of Trustee of Marion County, subject to the action of the Republican party.
We are authorized to announce H. M. Westmoreland as a candidate for reelection to the office of Sheriff of Marion County, subject to the action of the Republican party.

The Gallatin Examiner-Tennessean is on our desk, and contains a red-hot arraignment of its townsman, Judge Bell, being awarded the honor of the supreme judgeship left vacant by the death of Judge Wilkes. And too, they fire some hot shot at Gov. Patterson for making the appointment, alleging it was dependant on the event either of Judge Wilkes' resignation or death. The Examiner-Tennessean considers it a piece of base partisanship, and uses some strong adjectives to express the idea.

Among the exchanges coming to our desk there is none livelier, wittier or more ably edited and mechanically constructed than the McCullough Co., Tex. Star, with which our friend, Paul Wright, the veteran newspaper man and printer, is connected. May the Star continue to twinkle brightly as long as there are any "Gentle Annes" to pen its columns. We refer to "Gentle Annie" because that is a personage frequently mentioned in the Star, as well as another yelp "Maud," evidently feminine, not masculine.

Of course if that mine operator at Four Mile, Ky., refers prefers to have his mines located in the middle of the infernal regions, it is his privilege to have them located there. Probably that is a business venture that he is desirous of entering into—viz, supplying hell with coal. There, however, the U. M. W. of A. respectfully leave him, preferring not to make contracts to get our coal in such an already warm climate. They prefer to mine coal to warm the shivering people of this earth, a great many of whom at this special moment greatly need it.

The efforts of Old Boreas to get up a snow storm in this section the past two or three days have been extremely ludicrous. However, if the old fellow was to give us a genuine old fashioned snow storm—about a foot of the fleecy on the level—it wouldn't be such a laughing matter to some of us at least.

After April 1 we shall have to discontinue all subscriptions to the News more than a year in arrears. However, as the bulk of News subscribers are prompt in paying their subscriptions this will not be a very serious matter.

Eff you want ten bit or feller's feelin' rite in this yer kinimunity jist upst his bicker jug. Hit's shore aggravatin', an' we generally argue that feller into a condition that he kain't do hit any more.—Bunktown Buzz.

The shekles are mighty scarce now, but that don't prevent lots of people from sigging up a half dollar from somewhere, and paying their subscription to this weekly banner of wisdom.

About a month more and spring will dawn upon us with its weekly scares about the question of whether or not the fruit crop will be frozen out.

The Chattanooga postoffice reports an overwhelming increase of business and additional clerks have been put on. Prosperity is coming undoubtedly.

If you know a saw horse when you see it, don't think somebody else is not similarly gifted.

Burning a ton or two of coal now means (perhaps a few bushels of fruit next summer.

IDEAS.
(Contributed by "M. B.")

If God now uses preachers and the Bible in the regeneration of dead sinners He has always used them, and if He has always used them, tell me who He used in the regeneration of Abel.

This old world is round and chock full of cranks that are turned the wrong way. A crank is bad enough, but when you find one turned the wrong way it's a sight. He will devote the most of his time in attending to other people's business, telling what his brethren and neighbors are doing that's such a great wrong, but never sees anything wrong on his side of the house. You poor old hypocrite. "An hypocrite with his mouth destroyeth his neighbor."—Proverbs 14:9.

He who is not a source of courage, of joy for those about him, has no well spring of divine life within himself.

WEAK STOMACH is strengthened and toned by Hood's Sarsaparilla—the medicine that cures dyspepsia and POOR APPETITE.

How Is Your Blood?
If you lack strength, are nervous, have no appetite, don't sleep well, get tired easily, your blood is in bad condition. You cannot be strong without pure, rich blood. Hood's Sarsaparilla makes good, rich blood and keeps it good.
Dyspepsia.—For six months my system was out of order with dyspepsia and impure blood. Spent lots of money in vain, but Hood's Sarsaparilla cured me. Jos. S. Zarka, Genoa, Neb.
Had No Appetite.—I was troubled with dyspepsia and had no appetite. I had a faint feeling after eating. My constitution was all run down, but Hood's Sarsaparilla has fully relieved me. FLORENCE STOWE, Souderville, Wisconsin.
Weakness.—I bless the day I heard of Hood's Sarsaparilla, as it cured me of extreme weakness after grip, built my husband up after pneumonia, and cured eczema and blood poisoning in our children. Mrs. M. A. DAWSON, Box 2, Embreeville, Pa.
Hood's Sarsaparilla is sold everywhere. In the usual liquid, or in tablet form called Sarsatabs. 100 Doses One Dollar. Prepared only by C. I. Hood Co., Lowell, Mass.

Two Candidates.
Last week we received two announcements just in time to insert in the News, but had no opportunity to make any mention of the gentlemen concerned. The announcements we refer to are those of F. A. Kelly and H. M. Westmoreland.

Mr. Kelly, as everybody knows, is the present incumbent of the responsible office of Trustee of Marion county and is a man of worth and integrity. He is making an ideal trustee in every way. His books are well kept, he is attentive to inquiries from outside regarding taxes and other information, and tries in every way to do things right, and to suit the public. It would be hard to find anyone who can do any better than he has done.

In Mr. Westmoreland we find another faithful officer against whom we have not heard a word of complaint. He entered the race for sheriff under disadvantage of past failings, and there were several who predicted his downfall, but we are happy to say that their predictions have fallen to the ground, and Mr. Westmoreland has filled the duties of his office honestly, faithfully and soberly. He is a good sheriff.

Both of these men are desirous of reelection and voters before making any change should carefully weigh their merits and record. Sometimes it is not well to make a change, but this, as a paper independent in politics, we advise our readers to decide for themselves.

Farmers Who Work Together.
Over 2,500,000 cabbage plants are on the way from South Carolina to Lincoln county, ordered by the Lincoln County Cantaloupe and Truck Growers' Association. These plants represent an expenditure of about $3,000. Also 2,100 pounds of cantaloupe seed, representing an expenditure of $2,500, are en route.—Press Dispatch.

Why can't something be done in this county along these lines? As far as fertility is concerned this county is fully able to keep up with Lincoln in the production of the articles of commerce above mentioned. The only difference is that an association manages the sale of the output over there for the producers, while over here, with nothing of the kind existing, every farmer would have to take any old price offered him if he had such to sell. We believe there is an organization of farmers in this county. If so, why cannot they do something along the lines as laid out by the Fruit and Truck Farmer's Association of Lincoln County?

Deafness Cannot be Cured
Medical applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear, there is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a running sound of the ears, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; no matter out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

Whitwell.
We are having plenty of rain and cold weather.
There is lots of sickness in our community, such as fever, measles and whooping cough.
Mrs. J. Hudson is called to the bedside of her mother, Mrs. James Anderson, who is very low with fever and in gripple. Hope she will soon recover.

We regret very much the death of little Josie Bailey, who died recently with the measles. The bereaved family have our sympathy.
Joe Teague was in town shopping Saturday.
H. M. Layne, of Tatesville, was in town having some repairing done for his saw mill. I think he and his son, Elijah, are making a great success in the lumber business.

The work here is very slack. No work Saturday. Hope they will run full time hereafter.
Sweetwater is somewhat improved.
Will Ross has built a new house and it is now occupied by Harry McCoy.
Born to Mr. and Mrs. Harry McCoy, a fine girl.

Would he glad to hear from some of the old Whitwell friends that have been gone so long, and hope the time will soon come when they all can be back here together having a glorious good time.
Come on, ye writer of Christopher, Ill.
Glad to hear from "Old Black Joe" every week for I think I know you.
Come again, Joe Hackworth, of Tolbert, Texas.

Come on, "Cold Wave," of Coppinger Cove. I do enjoy reading your ideas. Have you got your smoke house built yet?
Sorry to say but the miners here are imposed upon worse than the darkies were in slavery time. Their masters did have work for them to do and plenty to feed them on and here they get to work a day now and then at a very low price. Lady Love.

Four Mile, Ky.
Special to the News.
Well, Whitwell boys, where is your open shop leading too? Decrease or increase in wages? Think what it would be if you were organized and all as one for each other's good.

The Black Raven Co. has been running on the open shop plan and work has been very slack since December, and the 1st of February they met us with a reduction, a heavy one too. Last Friday night the men called a meeting, got T. J. Smith here as soon as possible, and 25 out of 70 were obligated in this U. M. W. of A. We are going to win but expect trouble. Our bank committee met the superintendent this morning and stated their business. His reply was that he would see the mines in the middle of h—l and the houses all burned up before he would recognize the U. M. W. of A., but I think he will change his mind. There have been five or six discharged.

Grover Thomas got an order for his time. I guess you can look for him at Whitwell soon. Your humble servant will lay with them, but my better half may come back to the valley on a visit.
Hope to hear from all the News writers and, please, if you see any men coming here tell them the trouble. Jack.

Easy to Mix This.
What will appear very interesting to many people here is the article taken from a New York daily paper, giving a simple prescription, formulated by a noted authority, who claims that he has found a positive remedy to cure almost any case of kidney or bladder derangement, in the following simple prescription, if taken before the stage of Bright's disease.

Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Shake well in a bottle and take in teaspoon doses after each meal and at bedtime.

A well known druggist here at home, when asked regarding this prescription, stated that the ingredients are all standard and can be obtained at a small cost from any good prescription pharmacy, or the mixture would be put up if asked to do so. He further stated that while this prescription is often prescribed in rheumatic afflictions with splendid results, he could see no reason why it would not be a splendid remedy for kidney and urinary troubles and backache, as it has a peculiar action upon the kidney structure, cleansing these most important organs and helping them to sift and filter from the blood the foul acids and waste matter which cause sickness and suffering. Those of our readers who suffer can make no mistake in giving it a trial.

There is no absolute solitude. We are never alone—never companionless. In the silence of our locked chambers, or in the depths of the earth, or in the highest altitudes, we are not alone. An intelligence is there. Our Angel is there, with us, is by us, before us, over us and under us. He is the life companion God, in His adorable providence, has given us. He is an intelligence, and a brightness, and a power surpassing our own. If we fancy that at any time we are alone, altogether alone, that no one sees us but God, we delude ourselves. That angel is our helper, our companion, our guide, our guardian. God has appointed him to have charge over us, "to keep us in all our ways."

To My Friends, the Boys.
I wish our readers would quit speculating as to who "L" is. I am a real character and that is sufficient. Just let me write my little contributions to the News and help to interest the readers. Let them enjoy our visits without puzzling their minds over who is the author of this or that.
Boys, I promised to talk with you and I feel sure you'll hear me. In the first place a boy that honors his father and loves his mother, need never fear about being slighted by an intelligent and sensible girl. Such a boy is counted among God's noblemen and the doors of the best homes are open to him. His father and all his friends admire such a boy and his mother just dotes on him, and his young lady friends' eyes sparkle like diamonds when he is in their company.
Now, boys, the opposite of the boy who honors his father and loves his mother is not respected by the best people. In one of our young and growing cities not a great while ago, I heard some old soldiers talking about boys. There was a young lady friend present and one of those veterans said that a boy who wouldn't obey and respect his parents he didn't want to speak to or have about him. And the others endorsed what he said. Of course we were not asked for our opinions, but we made a note of what was said and I'm sure we will not forget it.

The old and the young like and respect the boy who honors his father and mother. A boy who doesn't will never rise above the scolding set and when he marries he will have to take a wife from that set. "Honor thy father" is a divine command and the boy who disobeys said command suffers much in this life. He makes a failure in life. Trouble and disappointments to such are numerous, while the other boy has a good time and plenty of friends. The boy who curses and abuses the old man, as the disobedient call them, doesn't enjoy himself like the other boy, and the girls he would like to call on refuse to have anything to say to him, for they have heard all about his conduct and its in everybody's mouth. The least sauciness of a boy to his father flies like lightning, and all the girls hear of it, and all the sensible ones scorn such a boy, and he is sure to get slighted by the best girls, and the poor dunces wonder why. So the "why" is an enigma to him, for he thinks he's treated every person respectfully and so probably he has, except his father and mother. Then he has disobeyed, wantonly and maliciously.

Now, boys, let me counsel you to treat your fathers with respect and obey them. Do this and your lady friends will never snub you.
"Your Friend, L."

Then the young folks arrived in town they drove to the residence of Dr. Tillett, which is located in the center of town, and a great many young people who were standing around on the streets suspected that a runaway marriage was about to take place. Dr. Tillett, being a minister as well as a doctor, but it turned out that they simply wanted to have their photographs made, the genial doctor being a skillful photographer also.

Brannan and McBees gave a pig race at the skating rink. They offered to give to anyone who would bring the pig to the front of the room $2.50 or the pig. After an exciting scuffle and falling, Vann Henley, after being seriously bitten by the pig, landed it and accepted the pig in preference to the money. A large crowd was on hand to enjoy the fun.

AMBRIDGE
The Cambridge Reversible Sulky Plow is the highest type of plow of the twentieth century—constructed on correct scientific and mechanical principles. It is the result of a constant endeavor to produce a perfect riding plow, and has 12 years experience in plow making back of it. The demand of the times has been for a better riding plow—the Cambridge meets that demand and only needs to be tried to convince the farmer that it is the superior of any riding plow ever before produced. It will do equal work equally well on level land or on the hill-side; will leave the soil smooth and free of ridges and dead furrows; works with lighter draft than any hand plow doing the same work—easy on man and team. Made in two sizes and from the best malleable iron and high grade steel; improved and extra heavy steel wheels with dust cap and removable chilled boxes. Easy to manage, always under perfect control.

We still have work every day here. It is the best place in the world. The drivers here get $2.72. I was down in Tennessee not long ago on a visit and was at Clifty. They wanted me to drive a mule for $1.40 a day. What do you think of that? I haven't gone to working non-union yet and if I were to take a notion to do so I would only have to go down five miles to Zeigler, where they pay more than the scale, $3.00, a day. He is running a non union mine and he has got to pay above the scale to get a man, so I guess you see how old Illinois stands. Boys, come to Illinois if you want to be union, but if you don't I will ask you to stay away unless you want to go to Zeigler.

I will tell you of a little joke on my wife. She ordered a watch the other day and I just for fun said to her, "I wish they would send a gentleman's watch," and sure enough they did and I got the watch and my wife is mad yet, but I don't care for I have the watch. Well, some more bad luck happened to my wife last week. Her little dog died and she almost died too. We had a little fire in our city, Friday night. The bakery and M. L. Crenshaw's saloon were burnt.

Saturday night two shot frers got burned. They were George Bowlin and John Sacco. They went into No. 3 and met gas. John is not badly hurt but George is going to St. Louis hospital to be treated.

I want the writers of Herrin, Ill., to write again.

Don't expect to have the same kind of happiness all the time. Life is like a progression of sweet notes on a harp: we go from one harmony to another, each age bringing its particular hopes and ambitions and blessings. We outgrow everything, and this is as it should be, for life is a process of continual change. You outgrow those friends who do not grow with you. The man or woman who never learns anything or never changes lags at the end of the procession while all his friends fly away ahead of him. There is so much to learn and the learning is very pleasant.
